High Springs, FL (PRWEB) July 23, 2009 -- NetQuote is honored to announce that it has teamed up with Ark of Hope for Children to sponsor public programs devoted to providing hope to abused and orphaned children. NetQuote is the Internet's most popular comparison home insurance web site that connects consumers with multiple insurance agents that compete for their business. Ark of Hope for Children is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to housing and providing care for previously abused and neglected children and orphans.

By joining forces, NetQuote and Ark of Hope for Children prove their commitment to providing comprehensive care for children in need. By overseeing the physical, emotional, and educational needs of children and youth, this partnership will equip and empower previously abused and neglected children to handle the challenges of their past and build hope for their futures. Both organizations recognize the vital importance of raising awareness of the difficulties faced by orphaned children and youth living in foster care, and are dedicated to bringing stability and a high quality of life to those in need.

NetQuote® is the Internet's most popular comparison insurance Web site, connecting consumers with multiple insurance agents who compete for their business. Since 1989, NetQuote has connected more than 20 million people to the Web's largest network of local insurance agents and national insurance carriers. NetQuote saves consumers time and money with objective insurance information and comparison shopping services for auto, home, renters, health, life and business insurance via www.NetQuote.com. NetQuote partners with the nation's top insurance carriers including Allstate®, Nationwide®, and Progressive® to make sure consumers get the right policy at the best price.

The Ark of Hope for Children, based in Northern Florida, is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the housing and care of domestic orphans and previously abused and neglected children. With unique programs that are aimed at providing care for children and youth from birth through twenty-three years old, Ark of Hope oversees the physical, emotional, and educational needs of children and youth, provides a safe haven for previously abused and neglected children, and encourages emotional healing. Moreover, the programs help to equip youth with the life skills that will empower them to be productive members of the community. Using tutoring teams, mentoring programs, unique educational programs, and a vibrant foster-parent support network, Ark of Hope is a restless organization committed to igniting the sparks that will bring hope and a future to those in need.
